If it appears that the threat continues, the Court may renew the bond for a like period.

1.404 Costs; peace bond procedures

In all cases of security to keep the peace under this chapter, the Court shall tax the costs against the complainant or defendant or both, as justice may require, and enter judgment therefor which may be enforced as judgments for costs in civil cases.

- (4) Identification of Parties. The party filing the appeal shall be referred to as the “appealing party” or “appellant”, and the party responding to the appeal shall be referred to as the “responding party” or “appellee”.
- (5) Notice of Appeal. An appeal to the Appellate Court shall be commenced by filing a Notice of Appeal with the Secretary of the Tribal Council. Such notice shall briefly describe the order, judgment or other final action of the Tribal Court from which the appeal is taken, including the names of the participants in the case, the court file number, and the date of the order, judgment or final court action from which the appeal is taken.
- (6) Pleadings on Appeal. The written pleadings to be filed in any appeal include the following: Notice of Appeal; Appellants Request for Preparation of Transcript; Appellee’s Request for Preparation of Transcript; Stipulated Statement of Facts (to be used in place of a transcript only when the parties agree); Statement of Issues on Appeal by the appealing party (which shall specifically identify each issue or question on appeal and shall state the reasons for appeal on each issue or question); and Response to Statement of Issues by the responding party (which shall answer or respond to each issue or question raised by the appealing party and shall state the reasons why each issue or question should be denied).

- (7) Filing and Service. All pleadings filed by each party to an appeal shall be filed simultaneously with the Secretary of the Tribal Council, who shall be the Secretary of the Appellate Court, and with the Clerk of the Tribal Court. Copies of all such pleadings shall be served on all parties to the appeal and on each party's attorney, advocate or spokesperson. In all criminal, juvenile and child welfare appeals where the plaintiff in the Tribal Court was the Hannahville Indian Community, service of all appellate pleadings on the Hannahville Indian Community shall be made on the Tribal prosecutor. Responsibility for making service of each appellate pleading shall be on the party who files the pleading. Service may be made by personal delivery or U. S. mail. A written proof of service shall be filed with both courts.
- (8) Time for Filing Appeal. The Notice of Appeal must be filed within 30 days after the date upon which a written final order, judgment or action of the Tribal Court is signed by the Tribal Court Judge. If the notice is filed after 30 days, then the appeal shall be denied by order of the Secretary of the Tribal Council, in which case the appeal shall not be submitted to the Tribal Council and Appellate Judges shall not be appointed. In the case of any interlocutory appeal under paragraph (2) of this section, the Tribal Court Judge shall set the time limits for filing all appellate pleadings.
- (9) Time for Filing Statement of Issues on Appeal. Within 14 days after filing the Notice of Appeal, the appealing party shall file a written Statement of Issues on Appeal identifying each issue or question being appealed and stating the reasons for appeal on each issue or question. This time limit may be extended for no more than 14 additional days upon the written and filed stipulation of the parties.
- (10) Time for Filing Response to Statement of Issues. The responding party shall have 14 days after the filing of the appealing party's Statement of Issues on Appeal in which to file a written Response to Statement of Issues, which shall answer or respond to each issue or question raised by the appealing party and shall state the reasons why each issue or question should be denied. This time limit may be extended for no more than 14 additional days upon the written and filed stipulation of the parties.
- (11) Transcript. If the appealing party requires preparation of all or any portion of the transcript of the Tribal Court proceedings which are being appealed, then he or she shall file a written Appellants Request for Preparation of Transcript no later than the filing his or her Statement of Issues on Appeal. If the appealing party requests only a partial transcript and the responding party requires preparation of additional portions of the transcript, then the responding party shall file a written Appellee's Request for Preparation of Transcript no later than 7 days after the filing of the appealing party's request for transcript. Upon receipt of the parties' requests for preparation of the trial transcript, the Clerk of the Tribal Court shall cause that portion of the record requested by the parties to be transcribed. The completed transcript shall be delivered to the Secretary of the Tribal Council for copying and distribution to the Appellate Judges and to the parties no later than 7 days prior to the date set for the appeal hearing. As an alternative to the preparation of a transcript of the proceedings, the parties may agree to a written stipulation of facts to be presented to the Appellate Court in lieu of a typed transcript.

- (12) Notice to Tribal Council; Appeal Hearing; Notice of Appeal Hearing. Upon the filing of the Notice of Appeal with the Secretary of the Tribal Council, the Secretary shall bring the appeal to the attention of the Tribal Council at either the next regular meeting of the Council or at a special meeting of the Council, whichever is necessary to complete the appointment of the Appellate Court Judges no later than 30 days after the filing of the Notice of Appeal. The appeal hearing shall be scheduled to take place no later than 14 days after the filing of the responding party's Response to Statement of Issues. However, in cases where a transcript of proceedings has been requested, the appeal hearing may be delayed for an additional 14 days if necessary to complete preparation of the transcript. The Secretary of the Tribal Council shall provide written notice of the appeal hearing to each party to the appeal. Said notice shall be served in person or by U.S. mail no later than 7 days prior to the appeal hearing.
- (13) Appeal on the Record; No Testimony or Evidence. All appeals shall be considered upon the record of the Tribal Court together with all written and oral pleadings and arguments presented by the parties on the appeal. No evidence shall be presented to or taken by the Appellate Court.
- (14) Decision by Appellate Court; Harmless Error. At the conclusion of the oral argument at the appeal hearing, and upon review of the written statements and arguments offered by the parties, it shall be the right of the Appellate Court to deliberate privately in discussing and deciding the issues and questions presented for decision. The decision of the Appellate Court on each issue raised in the appeal, together with a statement of its reasons for each decision, shall be expressed in writing and shall be filed with the Tribal Court and served on the parties no later than 7 days after the appeal hearing.

In making its decision, the Appellate Court may consider only matters of fact and law which were set forth in the original trial. The Appellate Court may deny the appeal and affirm or uphold the decision of the Tribal Court, and it shall do so if it finds no errors of fact or law by the Tribal Court. If the Appellate Court determines that there was an error of fact or law by the Tribal Court, it must then determine whether or not said error was harmless. Harmless error is any error, which is trivial, is not prejudicial to the substantial rights of the appealing party, and in no way affected the final outcome of the case. If an error is determined by the Appellate Court to be harmless, then the appeal shall be denied and the decision of the Tribal Court shall be affirmed or upheld.

If the Appellate Court finds there was an error of fact or law which affected the decision of the Tribal Court, then the Appellate Court may reverse the Tribal Court decision in part and affirm it in part, or it may reverse the Tribal Court decision in full. In any case where the Tribal Court decision has been reversed in part or in full, the Appellate Court may either:

- (a) Remand the case to the Tribal Court for further proceedings consistent with the Appellate Court decision; or
- (b) Enter an order or judgment with respect to the issue or question on appeal, consistent with its decision, which shall be dispositive of the issue without the necessity of further proceedings in the Tribal Court.

In making its decision on an appeal, a simple majority of the Appellate Judges considering the appeal shall be sufficient. If any Appellate Judge dissents from the decision of the Appellate Court majority, the dissenting judge may set forth the reasons for his or her dissent in writing.

- (15) Record of Appellate Proceedings. A written record of each and every proceeding of the Appellate Court shall be kept and shall include the following: Case title and Tribal Court file number; names of all parties to the appeal; appearances of all attorneys, advocates or spokespersons participating in the appeal hearing; date, time and place of each hearing and deliberation on the appeal; copies of all pleadings filed in the appeal; and the Appellate Court's decision on each issue raised in the appeal. The proceedings need not be recorded, and a recorded or verbatim stenographic record shall not be made unless the Appellate Court so directs.
- (16) Stay of Judgment Pending Appeal. Upon motion of the appealing party, or upon the Tribal Court's own initiative, following the timely filing of a Notice of Appeal, and pending a decision by the Appellate Court, the Tribal Judge, in his or her discretion and upon such terms as he or she deems appropriate, including a requirement for the appealing party to post bond, may enter an order staying the effect of the final judgment, order or court action in connection with which the appeal is being taken.

When the court receives notice that reasonable cause exists to believe that the defendant has failed to comply with any of the conditions imposed in regard to the defendant's release, the court may immediately revoke the defendant's bail or bond and order the defendant taken into custody pursuant to a warrant, and the defendant may be held without bail until further order of the court. Chapter 1.10 Arraignment

1.1001 Definition

Arraignment consists of reading the charges to the defendant as stated on an appearance ticket, complaint, or warrant and asking how he or she pleads to the offense charged.

1.1002 Procedure at arraignment

Arraignment shall be conducted on the record and shall consist of:

- (1) Reading the complaint to the accused; and
- (2) Stating the substance of the charges and the language of the law establishing the offense and fixing the penalty; and
- (3) Advising the defendant of his or her various rights under Federal law; and
- (4) Asking how the defendant pleads to the charges.
- (5) Failure to create a record shall not result in the dismissal of charges.

1.1003 Pleas

The defendant may plead "guilty," "not guilty," "stand mute," or "no contest." A plea of "no contest" means that the defendant does not admit his guilt but does not dispute the facts before the court. A finding of "guilty" may be entered by the court upon its determination that the defendant committed the offense charged. A plea in which the defendant "stands mute" has the same effect as a plea of "not guilty." If the defendant wishes to plead not guilty, he or she may demand a jury trial. After a plea of not guilty, the Court shall set a date for trial, which shall allow sufficient time for the defendant to prepare his or her defense. In no case shall the time be less than seven days unless waived by the defendant. If the defendant refuses to plead, a plea of not guilty will be entered by the Court. If the defendant pleads guilty he or she may be sentenced immediately or within a reasonable time. Any plea made shall be made on the record which may be by teleconference with the defendant present. The defendant's presence may be excused at the discretion of the Court. Where the penalty to be imposed consists of a civil fine, or as otherwise provided by this Code or other law of this jurisdiction, the defendant may be allowed to enter a plea by mail. Amended 1/8/01.

Chapter 1.11 Pre-Trial Motions

1.1101 Motions; definition

A motion is the formal mode in which a party submits a proposed measure or resolution for the consideration and action of the Court.

1.1102 Motion to set aside the complaint

The complaint must be set aside by the Community Court upon the defendant's motion in the following cases:

- (1) Where it is found not to comply with the requirements of section 1.602.
- (2) Where it is found that the defendant has been charged or committed without reasonable or probable cause.
- (3) Upon a determination that the Court has no jurisdiction over the person or the offense.

1.1103 Order setting aside complaint not bar to subsequent prosecution

An order to set aside the complaint, as provided for in this chapter, is no bar to future prosecution for the same offenses, except in the case wherein the Community Court has no jurisdiction of the subject matter or of the person of the defendant.

1.1104 Motion waived by failure to move to set aside complaint

If the motion to set aside the complaint is not made before the defendant pleads, the defendant is precluded from afterwards making the motion, except in the case wherein the Court has no jurisdiction.

1.1105 Pre-trial motions heard at time made; except good cause postponement

All pre-trial motions shall be ruled upon at the time they are made unless for good cause the Community Court postpones the hearing to another time.

1.1106 Motion for a bill of particulars

The defendant may, in order to obtain facts other than those specified in the complaint, make a motion for a bill of particulars, stating specifically what facts are being alleged and must show a need for the bill of particulars.

1.1107 Motion for a change of Judge; procedure

If the defendant shall make affidavit of prejudice, that he cannot have an impartial trial by reason of the bias or prejudice of the presiding Judge of the Community Court, the Judge may call some other Judge of the Community Court to preside at said trial. It shall be the duty of such other Judge to preside at said trial and do any other act with reference thereto as though he were the Judge before whom the action was originally brought. If the Judge honors the affidavit of prejudice, the defendant shall be entitled to such change of the Judge at once.

1.1107a Method of Appeal

Appeal may be taken to a 5 member appeals panel selected by the means established for selection of the Court of Appeals.

1.1108 Motion to suppress evidence

A defendant has the right to file with the Community Court a motion to suppress evidence which he contends has been obtained from him in an unlawful manner. If the Community Court is satisfied that the evidence has been unlawfully obtained, it shall order that the evidence be suppressed. If the Community Court decides that the evidence was lawfully obtained, it may be used against the defendant.

Chapter 1.12 Trial, General Provisions

1.1201 Criminal actions defined

A criminal action is one prosecuted by the Tribe as a party against a person charged with violating the Tribal laws, for the punishment thereof.

1.1202 Irregularities, mistakes, omissions have no legal effect unless actually prejudicial

Neither a departure from the form or mode prescribed in this chapter in respect to any pleading or proceedings nor an error or mistake therein renders it invalid, unless it has prejudiced the defendant.

1.1203 Summoning witnesses

The Community Court shall have the power to issue summons to witnesses from within or without the reservation. The summons must contain the reason for summoning the person and the number of days the person will be required to be present. If the witness is summoned to attend and testify, he shall be tendered the sum of $.325 a mile or the current community rate for each mile by ordinary traveled route to and from the Court where the prosecution is pending, and $8.00 for each half day or portion thereof which he is required to travel and attend as a witness.

1.1205 Rights of accused

In all criminal prosecutions, the accused person shall have the right to defend himself in person or by counsel; to demand the nature and cause of the accusation against him; to have a copy thereof; to meet the witnesses against him face to face; to have compulsory process served to obtain witnesses in his behalf; and to a speedy public trial by an impartial jury. No person shall be compelled in any criminal case to give evidence against himself or be twice put in jeopardy for the same offense.

1.1206 Presence of the defendant

The defendant in a criminal case shall be present in court at every stage of the proceedings, including impaneling of the jury and the return of the verdict, where trial is by jury, and at the imposition of sentence.

1.1207 Calendar; Clerk of Courts duties

The clerk of the court must keep a calendar of all criminal actions pending in the court, enumerating them according to the date of the filing of the complaint, specifying the offense charged and whether the defendant is in custody or on bail.

1.1208 Setting cases for trial; maximum time; continuances, proof required, precedence of criminal cases

The Court shall set all criminal cases for trial as soon as possible after the date of entry of the plea of the defendant, so long as said trial date is in conformity with the provisions of section 1.1003 of this Code. No continuances of the trial shall be granted except upon good cause shown in open court, upon reasonable notice, that the ends of justice require a continuance. The defendant shall be entitled to a reasonable continuance, but such continuance shall not exceed 30 days, unless for good cause. Criminal cases shall be given precedence over civil cases.

1.1209 Death, illness; substitution; authority of substitute Judge

If, after the commencement of the trial of a criminal action or proceeding, the Judge presiding at such trial shall die, become ill, or for any other reason be unable to proceed with the trial, any other Judge of the Tribal Court in which the trial is proceeding may proceed with and finish the trial. If there be no other Judge of that Court available, then the clerk of that court shall adjourn the court until such time as a Judge shall be appointed in conformity with the provisions of this Code and such Judge shall arrive to complete said trial. The Judge authorized by the provision of this section to proceed with and complete the trial shall have the same power, authority and jurisdiction as if the trial had been commenced before such Judge.

1.1210 Incriminating testimony and immunity of witnesses/use immunity

Incriminating testimony and immunity of witness except for perjury. No person shall be excused from attending and testifying, or producing any books, papers or other documents before any court or magistrate, upon any investigation, proceeding or trial, for violation of any of the provisions of this code, upon the ground or for the reason that the testimony or evidence, documentary or otherwise, required of him may tend to degrade or incriminate him; but no person shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter or thing concerning which he may so testify or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, and no testimony so given or produced shall be received against him in any criminal investigation, proceeding or trial: Provided, that no person so testifying shall be exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying.

Chapter 1.13 Formation of the Jury

1.1301 Formation of trial jury

Trial juries for all criminal actions are formed in the same manner as trial juries in civil actions.

1.1302 Jury dismissed; matter of law

It shall be discretionary with the Court as to whether the jury impaneled for trial prior to postponement pursuant to section 1.1209 shall remain seated or a new jury seated in its stead.

1.1303 Challenges; definition; kinds

A challenge is an objection made to the trial jurors and is of two kinds:

- (1) To the panel, or
- (2) To an individual juror.

1.1304 Panel defined

A panel is a list of jurors returned by the board of jury selectors.

1.1305 Challenge to panel defined; who may challenge; reason for challenge

A challenge to the panel is an objection in writing made to all the jurors returned, and may be taken by either party. The panel may be challenged when any of the following appear:

- (1) There is an error in the procedure used in summoning the juror;
- (2) Bias can be shown; or
- (3) There was an omission to summon one or more of the jurors drawn.

1.1306 Challenges to individual jurors

A challenge to an individual juror is an objection which may be taken orally, and is either for cause or peremptory.

1.1307 Order for exercising challenges for cause; peremptory and time

All challenges for cause must be taken first by the defendant and then by the Tribe. Peremptory challenges may be taken by either party at any time during the seating of the jury and before the jury is sworn.

1.1308 Challenge for cause

A challenge for cause may be made by the Tribal Prosecutor or by the defendant, and must specify the facts constituting the causes thereof. Challenge for cause are unlimited. They may be made for any of the following causes:

- (1) A previous conviction of a felony;
- (2) A lack of any of the qualification set out in section 2.903 of this Code;
- (3) Unsoundness of mind, or such defects in the faculties of mind or the organs of the body as to render him incapable of performing the duties of a juror;
- (4) Having served as a juror in a civil action brought against the defendant for the act charged as an offense;
- (5) Being a party adverse to the defendant in a civil action, or having complained against or been accused by him in a criminal action;
- (6) Having formed or expressed such an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the defendant as would prevent him from a fair verdict upon the evidence submitted on the trial;

- (7) Having served in the Community Court as a juror during the last month.
- (8) Standing in the relation of guardian and ward, attorney and client, employer and employee, or landlord and tenant; or being a member of the family, or a relative of the defendant, or of the person alleged to be injured by the offense charged, or on whose complaint, or at whose instance the prosecution was instituted, or in his employ. Failure to challenge of cause shall constitute a waiver of the basis for challenge.

1.1309 Peremptory challenge; parties who may take; form; definition

A peremptory challenge can be taken by either party and may be oral. It is an objection to a juror for which no reason need be given, but upon which the Court must exclude him.

1.1310 Peremptory challenge; number; joint defendants

The defendant is entitled to two and the Tribe to two peremptory challenges. If two or more defendants are jointly tried for any public offense, the Tribe and the defendants shall be entitled to two peremptory challenges for each defendant.

1.1311 Vacancy filled

After each challenge, sustained for cause or made peremptorily, another juror shall be called, may be challenged for cause, and shall be subject to peremptory challenge.

1.1312 Jurors sworn

When the jury has been accepted they shall be sworn to try the facts.

1.1313 Tribal council members not to serve as jurors

Members of the Hannahville Indian Community Tribal Council shall be excluded from jury duty.

Chapter 1.14 Trial Procedure

1.1401 Order of procedure

The jury having been impaneled and sworn, the trial must proceed in the following order:

- (1) The clerk or the Tribal Court Judge must read the complaint, and state the plea of the defendant to the jury.
- (2) Opening statements shall be given by the Tribal Prosecutor followed by the defendant and his counsel.
- (3) The Tribal Prosecutor must open the case and offer evidence in support of the charge.

The defendant or his counsel shall have the right to cross-examine any witness called to the stand by the Tribal Prosecutor.

- (4) The defendant or his counsel may then open the defense and offer evidence in support thereof. The Tribal Prosecutor shall have the right to cross-examine any witness called to the stand by the defendant or his counsel.
- (5) The parties may then respectively offer rebutting testimony only, unless the Court, in furtherance of justice, permits them to offer evidence upon their original case. Rebuttal evidence is evidence offered in response to new evidence first presented by the opposing party.
- (6) When the evidence is concluded the Tribal Prosecutor and the defendant or his counsel may argue the case to the Court and jury, the Tribal Prosecutor opening the argument and having the right to close. Rebuttal is limited to new evidence presented by the opposing party.
- (7) Upon the conclusion of the arguments, the Court shall charge the jury orally or in writing, stating the law of the case. However, at the beginning of the trial or from time to time during the trial and without any request from either party, the judge may give the jury such instructions on the law applicable to the case as he may deem necessary for their guidance on hearing the case.

1.1402 Presumption of innocence; effect; reasonable doubt; defendant's refusal to testify

A defendant in a criminal action need not testify. He is presumed to be innocent until the contrary is proved. The effect of this presumption is to place upon the Tribe the burden of proving him guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. The defendant's failure to testify on his own behalf shall in no way be construed against him nor commented upon by the prosecutor.

1.1403 Joint defendants tried jointly; court may direct separate trials

When two or more defendants are jointly charged with a Tribal offense, they shall be prosecuted jointly, provided that the Court may, in its discretion, on application duly made prior to trial, direct that separate trials be had.

1.1404 View of premises by jury

When the Court is of the opinion that it is proper for the jury to view the place in which the material facts occurred, it may order the jury to be conducted in a body in the custody of proper officers to the place which shall be shown them by a person appointed by the Court for that purpose.

1.1405 Discharge of juror for illness or disability; new trial

If before the jury has returned its verdict into court, a juror becomes sick, or upon other good cause shown to the Court is found to be unable to perform his duty, the Court may order him to be discharged. When a juror is discharged for any of the above reasons, the Court may, upon stipulation, proceed in the absence of said juror. In the absence of such stipulation, the jury shall be discharged and a new jury shall be impaneled to hear the case.

1.1405a Extra juror to be sworn

The Court may allow an extra juror to be sworn at time of impaneling. This juror shall be discharged prior to the jury being sent to deliberation.

1.1406 Law questions for court and fact questions for jury

Questions of law are to be decided by the Court, questions of fact by the jury.

1.1407 Instructions to jury

At the close of evidence or at such time during the trial as the Judge directs, counsel for each party may file with the Tribal Judge written instructions on the law which the party requests the judge to deliver to the jury. At the same time, copies of such requests shall be furnished to the opposing counsel. The Judge shall deliver his instructions to the jury after arguments are completed. No party may assign as error any portion of the Judge's charge or omission therefrom unless he makes his objection before the jury retires to consider its verdict. Objections must be given out of the hearing of the jury.

1.1408 Decision in court; retirement

After hearing the charge, the jury shall retire for deliberation.

1.1409 Poll of jury before recording verdict; either party authorized; dissenting juror, further deliberation, dismissal of jury

When a verdict is rendered and before it is recorded, the jury may be polled on the request of either party or the Court, in which case each juror must be asked whether it is his verdict. If any juror answers in the negative, the jury must be sent out for further deliberation. If upon returning after further deliberation, the jury is polled again and a juror answers that the verdict is not his own, then the judge shall dismiss the jury and a new trial will be ordered.

1.1410 Direction of verdict of acquittal

At any time after the evidence on either side is closed, the Tribal Court may, upon motion of the defendant or upon its own motion for directed verdict, direct the jury to return a verdict of acquittal; and in the event of the failure of the jury to return such a verdict of acquittal, the Court may refuse to receive any other verdict and may discharge the jury and enter a judgment of acquittal. The denial of the motion may be reviewed upon appeal to the Tribal Court of Appeals by the defendant. Upon request the Court must state the reasons for granting a directed verdict.

1.1410a Directed verdict, definition

Considering all the evidence in the light most favorable to the prosecution, a reasonable jury could not decide that the defendant was guilty beyond a reasonable doubt of the crime charged.

Chapter 1.15 Submission to the Jury and Verdicts

1.1501 Papers taken by jury

Upon retiring for deliberation, the jury may take with it all instruction, exhibits, and papers, which have been received in evidence. Also any notes of the testimony taken in the trial by the jurors may be taken.

1.1502 Information by court on points of law

After the jury has retired for deliberation, if there is a disagreement as to any part of the testimony or if it desires to be informed on any point of law arising in the case, it must require the officer to conduct it into court, and upon its being brought in, the information required may be given at the discretion of the Tribal Court.

1.1503 Jury kept together

The jury shall be under the charge of the bailiff or other officer appointed by the Court. The jury must be kept together after the cause is submitted to them by the clerk of the court until they have agreed upon and rendered a verdict, unless, for good cause, the judge sooner discharges them.

1.1504 Verdict

The jury must render a general verdict of "guilty" or "not guilty", which imports a conviction or acquittal on every material allegation in the complaint. The verdict in all criminal actions must be unanimous.

Chapter 1.16 Judgment

1.1601 Judgment of conviction; time for

Upon a plea of guilty or a verdict of guilty, the Community Court must fix a time for pronouncing judgment, which must be pronounced within a reasonable time after the verdict is rendered. Prior to pronouncing judgment the Court must make a pre-sentence investigation unless waived by the defendant on prosecution.

1.1602 Execution of judgment; imprisonment; fine; record

When judgment of imprisonment is entered, a signed copy thereof must be delivered to the police officer as defined in section 1.102 of this Code, or other officer, which is a sufficient warrant for its execution. When a judgment is entered imposing a fine and ordering the defendant to be imprisoned until the fine and costs are paid, he must be held in custody during the time specified in the judgment in the discretion of the Court, unless the fine and costs are sooner paid. Upon payment of a fine by the defendant, the defendant shall be immediately set free unless detained for other legal cause.

1.1603 Presence of defendant

When judgment is pronounced the defendant must be personally present.

1.1604 Insanity

If the Court is of the opinion that there is reasonable ground for believing the defendant is insane or incompetent, the question of his sanity and commitment shall be determined as provided in Chapter 2.11 of this Code. The defendant may not be tried nor convicted of a crime, nor shall sentence be carried out if the defendant is declared insane during the proceedings or prior to execution of the sentence. Subject to the Statute of Limitations herein provided, an individual may again be made subject to criminal proceedings or shall be sentenced at such time as sanity is regained.

1.1605 Imprisonment for fine

A judgment that the defendant pay a fine and costs may also direct that he be imprisoned until the fine and costs are satisfied, specifying the extent of the imprisonment, which shall not exceed one day for every ten dollars of fine. Upon showing of indigence, a defendant may not be incarcerated solely because of his inability to pay the assessed fine but may, in the discretion of the Court, be given the choice of:

- (1) Release on probation the terms of which shall include, performing services for the Tribe which are within his range of skills and at a wage rate commensurate with services rendered until such time as the assessed fine and costs have been satisfied; or
- (2) Release on probation, one of the terms of which shall include the payment, in regular installments within his means, of the total fine and costs assessed.

A defendant, indigent or not, may be incarcerated for his failure to comply with the Court's order to perform services as is specified in subsection (1), above, or his failure to comply with the terms of his probation with respect to timely payments as is set forth in subsection (2), above.

1.1606 Suspension of sentence

The Court may, on such terms and conditions as the Court may impose, suspend the sentence and release a convicted person on probation upon that person's signed pledge of good conduct for the duration of the sentence.

1.1607 Commutation of sentence

If the Court is satisfied that justice will best be served by reducing a sentence, the Court may, at any time after one-half of a sentence has been served, commute to a lesser period any sentence imposed upon a person, served without misconduct.

1.1608 Application for order setting aside conviction; eligibility; contents of application; submitting application and fingerprints; application fee; contest of application by prosecuting attorney; notice to victim; proofs

- (1) Eligibility. Except as provided in subsection (2), a person who has no pending charges and who has not been convicted under the laws of any jurisdiction within the preceding 3 years may file an application with the tribal court to have not more than 2 tribal court convictions set aside in one lifetime. There shall be no waiver of the 3 year waiting period, nor the number of convictions that may be set aside.

 - (a) The full name and current address of the applicant and any aliases by which the applicant has been known in any jurisdiction.
 - (b) A certified record of the conviction(s) to be set aside.
 - (c) A statement that the applicant has no pending charges and no convictions within the preceding 3 years in any jurisdiction.

Fines and costs and any other monies that are owed by the applicant at the time of the application to set aside a conviction shall not be determinative of whether or not an application is granted, but may be considered as a behavioral characteristic along with the protection of the public welfare.
 - (b) Background Investigations; Reporting of Conviction. A conviction that has been set aside by order of the court does not have to be reported by the applicant for purposes of an employment background investigation.
 - (c) Enhancement of Subsequent Conviction. The previous conviction may not be used for enhancement purposes in relation to any subsequent conviction or pending criminal charge.

- (10) Nonpublic Record; Disclosure. Upon entry of an order setting aside a conviction, the court shall provide copies to the Hannahville Indian Community Tribal Police Department, to the applicant, to the review committee and to the Adjudicator responsible for employment background investigation determinations.

A new trial is a re-examination of an issue of fact in the same court after a verdict has been given.

1.1902 Application

Application for a new trial may be made only by the defendant or his attorney and must be made before the completion of the sentence. Application must be made to the Court before which the case was tried. Except that the prosecution could recharge after acquittal if new evidence was discovered.

1.1903 Grounds

The Court, on application from the defendant or on its own motion, may grant a new trial based on the following cause or causes:

- (1) When proper evidence has been presented that the jury has received any evidence, paper or document out of court not authorized by the Court.

victim sufficient to negate voluntary consent, including but not limited to any of the following circumstances:

- [1] when the perpetrator overcomes the victim through the actual application of physical force or physical violence;
 - [2] when the perpetrator coerces the victim to submit by threatening to use force or violence on the victim, and the victim believes the perpetrator has the present ability to execute these threats;
 - [3] when the perpetrator coerces the victim to submit by threatening to retaliate in the future (including threats of physical punishment, kidnapping or extortion) against the victim or against any other person, and the victim believes the perpetrator has the ability to execute this threat; and
 - [4] when the perpetrator, through concealment or by the element of surprise, is able to overcome the victim.
- (3) Consent not a defense. The actual or apparent consent of the victim shall not be a defense to charges of criminal sexual conduct in the first or second degrees and shall not otherwise be relevant if any of the circumstances listed herein exist. A person shall be guilty of the crime of criminal sexual conduct in the first degree if he or she engages in sexual penetration with another person and any of the following listed circumstances exist. A person shall be guilty of the crime of criminal sexual conduct in the second degree if he or she engages in sexual contact with another person and any of the following circumstances exist. The circumstances referred to in this paragraph are as follows:

 - (f) The perpetrator engages in the medical treatment or examination of the victim in a manner or for purposes, which are medically recognized as unethical or unacceptable.
- (4) Corroboration of victim's testimony. The testimony of a victim need not be corroborated in prosecutions under any section of the criminal sexual conduct code.
- (5) Resistance. A victim need not resist the perpetrator in the perpetrator's commission of an offense under any section or subsection of the criminal sexual conduct code. Resistance by a victim is not an element of any offense under any section or subsection of the criminal sexual conduct code, and the absence of a victim's resistance is not a defense in a prosecution under any section or subsection of the criminal sexual conduct code.
- (6) Admissibility of evidence; victim's prior sexual conduct.
- (a) Evidence of specific instances of the victim's prior sexual conduct, opinion evidence of the victim's prior sexual conduct, and reputation evidence of the victim's prior sexual conduct shall not be admitted as evidence in a prosecution under any section or subsection of the criminal sexual conduct code, unless and only to the extent that the judge finds that the proposed evidence is material to a fact at issue in the case, that its inflammatory or prejudicial nature does not outweigh its probative value, and that the proposed evidence is of the following nature: [1] evidence of the victim's past sexual conduct with the perpetrator; or [2] evidence of specific instances of sexual activity showing the source or origin of semen, pregnancy or disease.
 - (b) If the defendant proposes to offer evidence described in subsection (a) immediately above, the defendant shall file, no later than ten (10) days after the initial pretrial conference following arraignment, a written motion and offer of proof. The court may order an in camera hearing to determine whether the proposed evidence is admissible under subsection (a) above. If new information is discovered during the course of the trial that may make the evidence described in subsection (a) above admissible, the judge may order an in camera hearing to determine whether the proposed evidence is admissible under subsection (a) above.
- (7) Suppression of names and details. Upon the request of the victim or the perpetrator in a prosecution under the criminal sexual conduct code, the magistrate before whom the perpetrator is brought on a charged offense under the criminal sexual conduct code shall order the names of the victim and the perpetrator and the details of the alleged offense to be suppressed until such time as the perpetrator is arraigned, the charge is dismissed, or the case is otherwise concluded, whichever occurs first.

- (8) Married persons. A person may be charged and convicted under the criminal sexual conduct code even though the victim is his or her legal spouse. However, a person may not be charged or convicted solely because his or her legal spouse is under the age of 16 years, or is mentally disabled, or is mentally incapable, or is mentally incapacitated.

1.2090 Sex offender registration and notification code

- (1) Title. This Code shall be known as the Hannahville Indian Community Sex Offender Registration and Notification Code or the Tribal Sex Offender Registration and Notification Code or TSORNC.

This Code shall be interpreted liberally to comply with the terms and conditions of that Act as presently written or hereafter amended.
